LYCEUM ATTRACTION THURSDAY NIGHT

The next number in the Lyceum course is a lecture Thursday night by Joseph G. Camp, of whom Senator Clay of Georgia has said: "I do not believe he has a superior as an orator."

Many people fail to become interested in an entertainment of this kind because they imagine that a "lecture" must be dry and tiresome. The successful lyceum lecturer, however, can neither be dry nor tiresome because if he were he would not be successful. The fact that Mr. Camp is in demand all over the nation today is evidence of the fact that he must entertain and please his audience.

Wellington Vandiver, manager of the Alabama Chautauqua Assembly, says of him: "Hon. Joseph G. Camp possesses that nameless something enabling a speaker to hold and interest an audience. The melodious, carrying voice, the graceful platform presence, and the power to thrill with the spoken word, is his. His diction is elegant—in thought he is chaste—humor runs like a thread of gold through the entire theme. He is a living example of the splendid power of golden speech over the mind of man. In an experience of fourteen years as a Chautauqua manager I have not found a speaker more thoroughly satisfactory to a critical audience than Hon. Joseph G. Camp."

DEATH CLAIMED A LITTLE BABY GIRL

Death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Villar yesterday at No. 14 North DeWitt street, robbing them of their infant daughter, little Ethel Louise, aged two and one-half months. The funeral will take place this afternoon from the home at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. Father Kennedy, of St. Michael's church, officiating.

Interment will take place at St. John's cemetery. The little one was an exceptionally bright little child, and the parents have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

GOOD PAVING JOB IN HAND

LONG CROSSING AT GREGORY AND ALCANIZ STREETS BEING CLOSED UP, WOOD BLOCK AND BRICK PAVING INTERSECTING.

Wood block and brick paving contractors are just now closing up the gap at the Gregory and Alcaniz streets intersection, and within a few days the job will have been completed. At that crossing the brick and wood block materials intersect, and there are two rail lines at the same intersection. The Electric Company's belt line track and the L. & N. switch south on Alcaniz street cross one another, making the job of paving a very particular one. The brick paving has been built from Alcaniz street just north of Chas street, and from the north side of Gregory to the south side of Wright street, the concrete foundation for the brick paving has been completed. The wood block paving has been completed from Ninth avenue to the east side of Alcaniz street, and from the west side of Alcaniz street to Palafox. The crossing on Alcaniz was left incomplete, but Friday a force of men were put to work there and when they left the job last night all concrete had been finished and the greater portion of the wood block laid in place. The brick pavers will get to work there early in the week and will complete the Alcaniz street work up to the south side of Wright street, and then another delay will be experienced because of the L. & N. tracks there. When the brick paving has been completed to connect with the south side of Gregory street, and the work finished on the wood block paving, it has been suggested that this would be an excellent route for some of the parades to be held during the carnival, and the auto parade, some of the enthusiasts started after an examination, would prove wonderfully delightful to go over the route, beginning at the city hall corner and taking advantage of the new paving there.

THE TISSUE PAPER BALL

SOME INTERESTING DETAIL AS TO "WHO'S WHO AND WHY" IN THE INTERESTING EVENT TO OCCUR TOMORROW NIGHT.

One of the real treats of the season which is in store for the pleasure-loving public will be the grand "Tissue Paper Ball," which is to take place to-morrow night at the Pensacola opera house under the auspices of the Civic League, the proceeds of which are to go toward the very meritorious cause of parks and other beautiful and interesting plans for the coming "City Beautiful."

The Tissue Paper Ball, with its hundred dancers, its very clever and remarkably graceful toasts, and its scores of pretty and artistic touches will be a distinct relief, and will have a distinctly wholesome and satisfying atmosphere after some of the plays which have been seen by local audiences this year, with their varying atmospheres of certain phases of morality—and the lack of it.

For children, and Pensacola's wee dainty tots with their older brothers and sisters are possessed with natural born talent, it appears, and their work is always good and fresh and snappy, from every standpoint. This being typically a young people's affair, the actors have been given the very best of professional training by Prof. Morris of Atlanta, and neither time nor expense has been spared in making the event the success of the season.

The Dances. There is the barn dance, with its roosters and milkmaids, who are the cleverest little people in the world and who dance entrancingly to the bright strains of the music. Then there are the poppies, and the butterfly ballet, with handsome little Adeline Foreman and Eleanor Ray Mitchell as the airy little queens.

The Rolly dance, which will be danced by the older girls, is of a stately and pretty character, while the Gaiety and the Dutch dances are among the most interesting of the season. Throughout the entire affair, there is a subtle, clever touch pervading, and the spirit of the dancers appears to be infectious. The costumes which will all be gorgeous affairs of tissue paper, have been secured in Atlanta, and the opera house bears the appearance of an entirely new place, a flowery, beautiful place, with its garlands of handsome paper flowers, which are most artistically arranged. Those who allow themselves to miss the ball, in fact, are allowing an opportunity to slip by to see the young people of Pensacola at their very best—an opportunity which will probably never be repeated in the form which it will be offered tomorrow night.

There will be a general rehearsal to-morrow afternoon at the opera house of all the dances. The hour is 3:30 o'clock. Tomorrow night parents are requested to deliver their children at the Government street door to the ladies of the committee. After the performance, the children will be returned to their parents through the box doors.

Those Who Are to Dance. Following is a complete list of those who are to take part in the ball to-morrow night:

Barn Dance. (Grace Owen, Premiere Danseuse). Roosters—Charles Lamar, Wright Reese, Charles Mayes, Frances Taylor, Harold White, Wm. Anderson, Howard Mayes, Wm. Bonacker, Max Goodman, Mark Mayer, Dick Meade, Clarence Friedman, Sublett Johnson, Frank Beard, Jeff Beard, Norris Lewis, John Anderson.

Milkmaids—Anna Pinney, Audrey Kellar, Dorothy Forbes, Marjory Pierpont, Anna Lamar, Florence Pierpont. Poppies—Kathleen Monroe, Lola Johnson, Gertrude Roberts, Ethel Twitty, Emily Meade, Irene Pinney, Hilda Bear, Lucille Lorton, Olga Thie-

IN A SHADOW

Inveterate Tea Drinker Feared Paralysis.

Steady use of either tea or coffee often produces alarming symptoms as the poison (caffeine) contained in these beverages acts with more potency in some persons than in others.

"I was never a coffee drinker," writes an ill woman, "but a tea drinker. I was very nervous and in the quiet spells of sick headache and heart trouble, and was subject at times to severe attacks of bilious colic."

"No end of sleepless nights—would have spells at night when my right side would get numb and tingling like a thousand needles were pricking my flesh. At times I could hardly put my tongue out of my mouth and my right eye and ear were affected. The doctors told me I was liable to become paralyzed at any time, so I was in constant dread. I took medicine of various doctors and no end of patent medicine—all to no good. The doctors told me to quit using tea, but I thought I could not live without it—that it was my only stay. I had been a tea drinker for twenty-five years; was under the doctor's care for fifteen."

"About six months ago, I finally quit tea and commenced to drink Postum. I have never had one spell of sick-headache since and only one light attack of bilious colic. Have quit having those numb spells at night, sleep well and my heart is getting stronger all the time."

TWO MORE ENTHUSIASTIC CITIZENS JOIN THE RANKS

OF QUAKER HEALTH TEACHER'S WORM FRIEND.

Saturday, in spite of the inclement weather, the hosts of people bound for Hannah Bros' drug store lined Palafox street from early in the morning until late at night. That the wonderful Quaker Remedies are creating remarkable cures is an established fact. The names and full addresses of persons cured and benefited by the use of these remedies have been published in the Pensacola papers as they were reported. Here are two more remarkable cases:

Mr. R. S. Williams, residing at West Point, Ga., had a rash that broke out all over his body, and had given him great inconvenience and misery for over a year. He tried many remedies and had the best of attention, but without result. He became very nervous, and his blood was in a very impoverished condition. He called on the Quaker Health Teacher several weeks ago, and was advised to use the Quaker Treatment, which he purchased, and used carefully, also washing the affected parts with the White Wonder and anointing them with the All-Healing Salve. Now his body is entirely cured, he has excellent rest at night, and is a different man entirely.

Mr. C. A. Ward, of 710 N. 7th Ave., had very severe case of indigestion. He would bloat after eating moderate food, had bad headaches, was constipated, very weak, and dependent over his condition. Two bottles of Quaker Herb Extract have done more for him than many months of other treatments he had used.

If you are suffering with catarrh, stomach or liver troubles, kidney, bowel or bladder complaints or rheumatism, the Quaker Extract is an absolute and positive cure—not a temporary relief. It will remove any and all kinds of worms from the system. Call on the Quaker Health Teacher, who charges nothing to talk to you on the subject of these famous remedies. If you cannot call, order by mail or phone, and the remedies will be sent to you. Quaker Herb Extract, $1.00, 3 for $2.50, 6 for $5.00. Oil of Balm, the grand pain eradicator, 25c, 5 for $1.00. Quaker Cough Cure, 25c, 5 for $1.00. White Wonder Vegetable Soap, 3 for 25c. All-Healing Salve, 3 for 25c. The Health Teacher can be seen daily at Hannah Bros' drug store, 14 S. Palafox St., from 9 a. m. till 9 p. m. Remember the number of the store and name of the proprietors, also name "Quaker," and don't be misled.

BOSTON ASKS ABOUT KLOS

POLICE OF THAT CITY BELIEVE THAT PENSACOLA HAS MAN WHO COMMITTED MURDER IN HUB CITY LATE IN DECEMBER.

Boston police are under the impression that the stranger, Klos, held in the city jail here, is the same man who on the night of December 22, killed a young man in that city and who has been doing since the crime. This information reached the local police headquarters yesterday, and a minute description was taken of Klos, with a view of giving the head of the Boston police force everything that would lead to correct identification. A good picture of Klos was also rushed to the Hub City.

Should Klos prove to be the man he is suspected now of being, the local officers will come in for a reward of $100 offered by the city of Boston for his arrest.

DEMAND FOR INVITATIONS

MONDAY THE LAST DAY FOR CARNIVAL SUBSCRIBERS, AS THEY WILL BE OPEN TO GENERAL PUBLIC TUESDAY.

The demand for carnival invitations has been heavy the past two days, the subscribers applying for large numbers for general distribution.

Subscribers who want to make sure of their share of the invitations should not fail to send to the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow, for it is the last day that the invitations will be given to subscribers only.

On Tuesday the invitations will be given to any and all applicants, whether subscribers or not, and will not last long when open to general applicants.

The coronation tickets for subscribers will be ready in a few days, and will be sent to the subscribers as usual. They can be exchanged for reserved seats at the Gem Book Store on and after Thursday, Feb. 3, at 9 a. m. The seat sale will open Saturday, Feb. 4, at 12 m., giving subscribers two and a half days to get their reserved seats before the seats are placed on public sale.
